

AFTER THE PANDEMIC virtual conference series

CALL FOR PAPERS

The International Centre for Economic Analysis invites papers to be considered for the winter conferences in the After the Pandemic conference series.

The Covid-19 Pandemic has been a singular event that affected health, economic situation and social cohesion around the world. The conference series is devoted to analyzing various aspects of the pandemic and their long-term consequences.

The following conferences will be held in the Winter term (with links to paper submission and registration):

Conference title	Inflation	Taxation and Innovation	Future of Work	The Resilient Society
Keynote speakers	Yuriy Gorodnichenko (Berkeley) Laurence Ball (Johns Hopkins)	Stefania Stantcheva (Harvard)	David Autor (MIT)	Markus Brunnermeier (Princeton)
Conference dates	January 27-28	February 3-4	February 24-25	March 3-4
Submission links	Submit a paper	Submit a paper	Submit a paper	Submit a paper
Deadline	4-Jan	11-Jan	27-Jan	3-Feb
Registration links (for non-presenters)	Register	Register	Register	Register
Deadline	17-Jan	24-Jan	10-Feb	17-Feb

Each conference has different theme, as indicated by the conference title. The conferences are planned as interdisciplinary and, along with economics, we invite papers in all fields, including psychology, sociology, political science, law and management.

The conferences are open to both presenters and non-presenters. and registration is required.

In the first part of the series we held six conferences in the Fall of 2021 (with keynote speakers in brackets): Happiness and Age (David Blanchflower, Dartmouth); Inequality (Wojciech Kopczuk, Columbia); Public Policy Lessons (Judith A. Chevalier, Yale); Working from Home (Nicholas Bloom, Stanford); Public Health (Alan Whiteside, Wilfrid Laurier University and Balsillie School of International Affairs) and Gender Inequality (Stefania Albanesi, Pittsburgh). Information about these conferences, with programs and paper links, is available on our website, <https://ICEAnet.org>.

Authors should submit an extended abstract of up to 300 words. For papers in economics and finance, please include JEL classification codes for the paper as well as keywords. Complete papers may be submitted but the extended abstract is required. In case of more than one author, the name of presenter should be underlined.

Proposals for sessions consisting of three or four papers are particularly welcome. If you are interested in submitting a session, please send the session topic, author names, titles and abstracts, as well as the name of the conference, to secretary@ICEAnet.org.

Additional information, calls for papers for individual conferences and submission and registration links is available on our website, <https://ICEAnet.org>

ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

The International Centre for Economic Analysis (ICEA) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to the advancement of research in economics and other social sciences. It is an international centre with chapters in Canada, at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario; in Poland, at the University of Warsaw and in Italy, at the University of Siena. The centre was called the Research Centre for Economic Analysis until September 2021.

ICEA envisions to become a network of academics and policymakers who collaborate to apply cutting-edge theoretical and empirical research relevant to economic policy. The centre welcomes diverse views on how to realize this goal. ICEA sponsors high quality research linkages in both interdisciplinary and international dimensions. We encourage long-term affiliation with the centre, and we especially encourage participation of graduate students and new PhDs.

To achieve these goals, ICEA organizes conferences, webinars and seminars at which leading economists, policymakers, industry practitioners, students, and other scholars can exchange and develop new insights and ideas. We are committed to the unrestricted exchange of research results and ideas, and our work is freely available online. Through outreach activities, we disseminate the results of our members' research to the decision makers and the general public.

PUBLICATION OPPORTUNITY

Review of Economic Analysis \(REA\), the official journal of ICEA, is planning to publish special issues from the conferences. The journal is open access, ABDC-ranked, peer-reviewed quarterly publication. ICEA aims to promote its further development as a top open access, general interest journal in the profession. REA is in its 13th year and is supported by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC). The papers submitted to the special issue will go through the usual refereeing process. REA charges no submission or publication fees.
